TITLE 5 CODE PROVISIONS INCORPORATED

5.1. Indemnification

A. Authority to Indemnify. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal) because he or she is or was a director against liability to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including the obligation to pay an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred with respect to the proceeding if:

(1) Such individual conducted himself or herself in good faith; and

(2) Such individual reasonably believed:

(a) In the case of conduct in his or her official capacity as director of the corporation, that such conduct was in the best interests of the corporation;

(b) In all other cases, that such conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and

(c) In the case of any criminal proceeding, that the individual had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful.

A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose he or she believed in good faith to be in the interests of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph A. Further, the termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section. The corporation may not indemnify a director under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has meet the relevant standard of conduct under this section, or in connection with any other proceeding with respect to conduct for which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received by him or her, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity as a director of the corporation.

B. Mandatory Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which the director was a party because he or she was a director of the corporation against the reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

C. Court-Ordered Indemnification or Advance for Expenses. A director who is a party to a proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal), because he or she is a director may apply for indemnification or advance for expenses (including counsel fees) to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. After receipt of the application and after giving any notice it considers necessary, the court shall order indemnification or advance for expenses if it determines:

- (1) that the director is entitled to indemnification under this Section 5.1., or
- (2) in view of all of the relevant circumstances, that it is fair and reasonable to indemnify or advance expenses to the director, even if the director has not met the relevant standard of conduct in paragraph A of this Section 5.1, or was adjudged liable in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for reasonable expenses; including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct under this section, or in connection with any other proceeding with respect to conduct for which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received by him or her, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity as a director of the corporation.

If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses, it may also order the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, to obtain court ordered indemnification or advance for expenses.

D. Procedure for Determination. The corporation may not indemnify a director under Paragraph A of this Section 5.1 unless authorized under the terms of Paragraph A of this Section 5.1, and a determination has been made for a specific proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal), that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in Paragraph A of this Section 5.1. The determination shall be made:

- (1) If there were two or more disinterested directors, by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of all of the disinterested directors (a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute a quorum) or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested directors appointed by such a vote);
- (2) By special legal counsel selected in the manner described in paragraph (1) of this subparagraph or, if there are fewer than two disinterested directors selected by the Board of Directors (in which selection directors who do not qualify as disinterested directors may participate); or
- (3) By special legal counsel selected by a super majority vote by the directors..

Authorization of indemnification or of an obligation to indemnify and the evaluation as to the reasonableness of expenses, including counsel fees, shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible.

E. Authorization of Indemnification Exceeding Statutory Levels. This section authorizes the corporation to indemnify or obligate itself to indemnify a director made a party to a proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal), without regard to the limitations contained in Part

5 of Article 8 of the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code, or of other provisions of this Section 5.1. The director who at the time does not qualify as a disinterested director with respect to any existing or threatened proceeding that would be covered by the authorization may not vote with respect to the authorization. The corporation shall not indemnify a director under this section for any liability incurred in a proceeding in which the director is adjudged liable to the corporation or is subjected to injunctive relief in favor of the corporation for:

- (1) any appropriation, in violation of the director's duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation,
- (2) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- (3) the types of liability respecting improper corporate distributions under O.C.G.A. 14-3-831, or
- (4) any transaction from which the director received an improper personal benefit.

Before the corporation may advance or reimburse expenses of a director prior to the final disposition of a proceeding, as approved or authorized under this section, the director is to furnish to the corporation a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that his or her conduct does not constitute behavior described in the preceding sentence of this section and furnishes to the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on his or her behalf, to repay any funds advanced if it is ultimately determined that the director is not entitled to indemnification under this section.

F. Indemnification or Advance of Expenses for Officer of Corporation; Indemnification or Advance of Expenses for Employees and Agents.

(1) The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under this Section 5.1 to an officer of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral, or investigative, and whether formal or informal), because he or she is an officer of the corporation to the same extent as a director, as provided in this Article. If the sole basis on which he or she is made a party to the proceeding is an act or omission solely as an officer, the corporation may indemnify or advance expenses to such further extent permitted by the laws of Georgia, except for liability arising out of conduct that constitutes:

- (a) appropriation, in violation of his or her duties as an officer, of any business opportunity of the corporation,
- (b) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- (c) the types of liability for improper corporate distributions (as specified in O.C.G.A. 14-3-831), or
- (d) the receipt of an improper personal benefit.

An officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under paragraph B of this Section 5.1, may apply to a court for indemnification or advances for expenses under paragraph C of this Section 5.1 to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification for advances for expenses.

(2) The corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to an employee or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the fullest possible extent, consistent with public policy and to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of Georgia. The procedures for such indemnification or advance shall be consistent with those for directors or officers of the corporation.

G. Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of each individual who is a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, serves at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity against liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in that capacity or arising from his or her status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify or advance expenses to him or her against the same liability under this Article.

H. Prior Obligation to Indemnify or Advance Expenses. Pursuant to the provisions of O.C.G.A. 14-3-858, the corporation is authorized to obligate itself in advance of the act or omission giving rise to a proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal), to provide indemnification or advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses of a director, officer, employee or agent to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of Georgia. The corporation has power to pay or reimburse a director or officer in connection with his or her appearance as a witness in a proceeding (whether threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal), at a time when he or she is not a party. Further, except to the extent limited in Paragraph G of this Section 5.1, this Section 5.1 does not otherwise limit the corporation's power to indemnify, advance expenses to, or provide or maintain insurance on behalf of an employee or agent.

I. Definitions Section. As used in this Section 5.1, unless the context clearly requires a different meaning, the term:

(1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

A director or officer is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if his or her duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by the director or officer to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. Further, unless the context otherwise requires, "director" or "officer" includes the estate or personal representative of a director or officer.

(3) "Disinterested Director" means a director who at the time of a vote or other action by the Board of Directors of the corporation is not a party to the proceeding; or is an individual who is a party to a proceeding having a familial, financial, professional, or employment relationship with the director whose indemnification or advance for expenses is the subject of the decision being made with respect to the proceeding, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment when voting on the decision being made.

(4) "Expenses" includes counsel fees.

(5) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(6) "Official capacity" means when used with respect to a director, the office of director in the corporation, and when used with respect to an officer, as contemplated in paragraph G of this Section 5.1, the office in the corporation held by the officer. "Official capacity" does not include service for any other domestic or foreign corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity.

(7) "Party" means an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(8) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal.

The board or the membership may adopt any needful rules or regulation necessary to implement these provisions.

TITLE 6 REIMBURSEMENT BY CORPORATION EMPLOYEES

Any payments made to an employee of the Corporation in the form of reimbursement, a salary, or bonus payment, that is disallowed, in whole or in part, as a deductible expense to the Corporation for Federal or State income tax purposes by the Internal Revenue Service, or by the revenue department of any State, shall be reimbursed by such employee to the Corporation to the full extent of such disallowance within six (6) months after the date on which the Corporation is assessed a deficiency with respect to such allowance. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors of the Corporation to enforce payment to the Corporation by any such employee for the amount disallowed. The Corporation shall not be required to legally defend any proposed disallowance by the Internal Revenue Service or by the revenue department of any State, and the amount required to be reimbursed by such employee shall be the amount, as finally determined by agreement or otherwise, which is actually disallowed as a deduction. In lieu of payment to the Corporation by any such employee, the Board of Directors may, in the discretion of the Board, withhold amounts from such employee's future compensation payments until the amount owed to the Corporation has been fully recovered.

TITLE 7 AMENDMENTS

7.1. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation. Any change in the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation is not adopted unless a proposal is submitted to the Board of Directors for a vote as to whether the proposal should be adopted, be adopted with amendments, or be rejected, and the board's reasons for their recommendation. Proposals may be initiated by a vote of the Board of Directors, or by any two directors of the Corporation. When the proposal is presented for consideration at a meeting of the membership of the Corporation, it is open to any amendments or other action as the Board of Directors approves, without limitation. No proposal to change the Articles of Incorporation is adopted unless two-thirds of the directors affirmatively vote, with a quorum present at a meeting, or with a quorum of ballots when voted upon by mail to approve the proposal. Once adopted, no change is effective until it is filed with the Georgia Secretary of State as required by the code.

7.2. Amendments to Bylaws. Any change in these bylaws is not adopted unless a proposal is submitted to the Board of Directors for a vote as to whether the proposal should be adopted, be adopted with amendments, or be rejected, and the board's reasons for their recommendation. Proposals may be initiated by a vote of the Board of Directors, or by any two directors of the Corporation. When the proposal is presented for consideration at a meeting of the membership of the Corporation, it is open to any amendments or other action as the Board of Directors approves, without limitation. No proposal to change the bylaws is adopted unless a majority of the directors affirmatively vote, with a quorum present at a meeting, or with a quorum of ballots when voted upon by mail to approve the proposal. Once adopted, any change to these bylaws is immediately effective, unless some later date is designated in the proposal.
